Gifts and Hospitality Policy

Why do we have guidance on gifts and hospitality?

Your conduct as a School Leader or member of staff should never lead anyone to question your interests, or lead anyone to think that you have been influenced by gifts and hospitality. This is important because your own personal reputation and that of the Schools in the Compass Partnership, could be seriously affected if you inappropriately accept a gift or hospitality. It is also a criminal offence to demand or accept a gift or reward in return for allowing you to be influenced as a part of the school/Partnership. This is why the Compass Partnership of Schools has adopted guidance which applies to all School Leaders and staff, in relation to gifts and hospitality. This policy protects you, the School and Partnership from false accusation and situations that may compromise integrity.

What is a gift?

A gift is any item or service that you receive free of charge. It also includes any goods or services which you personally are offered at a discounted rate or on terms not available to the general public.

What is hospitality?

Hospitality is the offer of food, drink, accommodation or entertainment or the opportunity to attend any cultural or sporting event on terms not available to the general public.

What gifts or hospitality can be accepted without any approval?

You can accept gifts and hospitality, which are small gestures and have a value of £30 or less, without the approval of the Head Teacher/LGB Chair. Gifts and hospitality of this nature do not need to be recorded in the School's Gifts and Hospitality Register.

What gifts or hospitality should not be accepted?

Do not accept;

- cash or monetary gifts
- gifts or hospitality offered to your husband, wife, partner, family member or friend
- gifts or hospitality from a potential supplier or tenderer
- lavish or extravagant gifts or hospitality, even if they relate to activities in your own time

What things should I think about before I decide what to do?

You should treat with caution any offer of gift or hospitality made to you personally. In particular, think about whether there is a benefit to the School in you accepting, the scale, amount, frequency and source of the offer, the timing of the offer in relation to forthcoming decisions and whether accepting could be misinterpreted as a sign of your, or the School's, support or favour.

What gifts or hospitality need approval from the Head Teacher or Chair of the Local Governing Body?

Any gift or hospitality which is more than just a token, defined as a having a value of more than £30, should be politely refused or returned. You must have the prior written approval of the Head Teacher if you decide to accept something which has more than this value. This should only be in exceptional circumstances. If you or your Head Teacher has any concerns or doubts about the public perception that might be attached to accepting any gift or hospitality, then you must refer it to the Chair of the Local Governing Body.

What should I do if I receive a gift without warning?

If you estimate that the gift is more than just a token you should politely and courteously decline the gift. If you feel that it would not be appropriate to do this, you should refer the matter to your Head Teacher as soon as possible and let the Head Teacher decide what you should do with the gift. Your Head Teacher may decide to return the gift, may ask the Chair of the Local Governing Body for a view, or may donate the gift to a worthy local cause.

What should I do if I get offered a gift or hospitality?

You must make sure that all offers you receive which have a value of more than £30 are recorded in the School's Gifts and Hospitality Register, which is kept in the School Office.

Do I need to record offers that I decline?

Yes – all offers of gifts or hospitality, which have a value of more than £30, must be recorded in the School's register, even if you don't accept.

What should I do if I am in doubt?

If in doubt, always speak to the Head Teacher. Head Teachers should consult their Local Governing Body Chairs if required. It is the responsibility of all staff members to follow the Partnership's guidance on gifts and hospitality, and to justify why you chose to accept a gift or hospitality offered to you.

What would happen to me if I didn't follow the guidance?

The School will take disciplinary action against you if you failed to follow the guidance. It is also a criminal offence to demand or accept a gift or reward in return for allowing you to be influenced as a part of the school. This means you could be prosecuted by the Police.

Monitoring

Adherence to the policy will be monitored by the school's local governing body who will review the school's gifts and hospitality register on a termly basis.
